Warsaw, Sept. 30. N. S.

OUR last Letters from the Army give an Account, That a Council of War being held, it was judged impracticable to execute any Enterprize of Moment this Campagne, the Season being so far advanced; and that the King had thereupon resolved to send his Troops into Winter-Quarters, and to post part of them about Caminiec, so as to block up that Place during the Winter, in order to lay Siege to it early the next Spring, in case a Peace with the Turks be not concluded before that time. The King designs to go in a short time to Lithuania, to settle the Affairs of that Dutchy, and afterwards to call a General Diet to meet at Warsaw.

From the Imperial Camp near Berzkerk, Septemb. 22. Prince Eugene of Savoy marched some days ago from the Camp with part of the German Horse, to intercept a Convoy which he had Advice the Turks were sending to Temeswaer, and advanced into the Neigbourhood of that Place, where having posted his Forces in a Wood, he sent out a Party of Hussars to get Intelligence of the Enemy's Motions; But one of this Party deserted, and gave notice of his Design to the Enemy, who thereupon sallied out of the Town with 2000 Horse, and fell upon our advanced Guards; Prince Eugene being informed thereof, sent several Squadrons of Horse to their Relief, who soon beat the Enemy back. In this Action divers of the Turks were killed and taken Prisoners, and the Germans likewise suffered some loss; and Count Esterhasi, a Captain in the Regiment of Palfi, venturing too far among the Enemy, as our Forces were in pursuit of them, was taken Prisoner. Prince Eugene continued there some time, but hearing no News of the said Convoy, and judging that upon notice of his March 'twas countermanded, he returned to the Camp the 20th instant. We have Advice from the Turkish Army, that they continue near Belgrade, that the Convoy designed for Temeswaer halted on this side the Danube expecting further orders, and that the Turks have left off building a Bridge over the Save, which was only a feint to draw our Forces that way, to the end the said Convoy might march without any Disturbance to Temeswaer.

Vienna, Octob. 1. My Lord Paget's Secretary set out from hence this day for Belgrade with an Answer to the Message he brought from thence, and to acquaint the Turkish Ministers, that the Ambassadors from the Emperor and the Republick of Venice are ready to depart for Peter-Waradin; whither they intend to begin their Journey in a day or two; And the Czar of Muscovy's Plenipotentiary is gone before. Signior Loredano, who is come to reside here as Ambassador from Venice, is preparing for his Publick Audience, which he will have in a few days. Signior Paulucci, who has resided in Poland with the Character of Nuncio Extraordinary from the Pope, is come hither to treat with this Court about the Fiefs in Italy, and as soon as that Affair is adjusted, he will return to Rome. Some Recruits are passed by this place going to the Imperial Army in Hungary, which according to our last Advices from thence continues encamped near Berzkerk, and the Turks near Belgrade.

Francfort, Octob. 8. The French have removed all the Artillery and Ammunition that were at Brisac to Strasbourg, but have yet fixed no day for the Evacuation of that Place. The Sieur Obrecht is daily expected here from Strasbourg, to confer with the Elector Palatine's Ministers who are already arrived at this Place concerning the Pretensions of the Dutchess of Orleans on the Palatinate. The Diet of the Circle of the Upper Rhine is to meet shortly to consider of the Supplies to be given for maintaining the Garison of Philipsbourg, and what Quota of Men each City shall furnish for Garisoning that Place, the Forces that are there at present being only lent by the Emperor and the Elector of Mentz.

Gour, Octob. 12. On Wednesday last, in the evening, the Elector of Hanouer arrived here with his youngest Brother Prince Ernest Augustus, and they waited on the King, who received them with great Marks of Esteem and Affection. Last Friday my Lord Lexington came to this Place from England. Mr. Stepney, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brandenburg, who came hither some days ago from Berlin, and brought Letters to His Majesty from that Elector, is returned with a Compliment from His Majesty to His Electoral Highness. The King has received a Compliment from the Duke of Wolfembuttel by General Bernstorf, and from the Landtgrave of Hesse-Cassel by Monsieur Tetteau. His Majesty intends to go from hence on Friday next to Cell, where His Majesty will continue 2 or 3 days, and then return to Loo.

Brussels, Octob. 12. The Count de Tirimont, and the Sieur Brockhowen, who are appointed on the part of His Catholick Majesty to Treat with the French Commissioners for Regulating the Limits of the Dominions of the two Crowns in the Netherlands, have received full Powers from Madrid in the Form which the French desired, and they will go in a few days to Lisle to renew the Conferences there, which were discontinued by reason of some Defects in their former Commissions. The Elector of Bavaria is gone to Mons to view the Fortifications of that Place. The Commissaries of War are sent to take a Review of the Spanish Forces in the several Places where they are Quartered in the Netherlands.

Hague, Octob. 14. The States of Holland and West-friseland are to meet to morrow. The Great Council of War, which has been assembled here some time, separated yesterday for a few days. Monsieur d'Odyke is shortly expected home from his Embassy to the French Court. The Count de Frise, Ambassador from Denmark, is preparing for his Publick Entry, which he designs to make this week. The Count de Denhof is expected here in a short time from Berlin, being to reside at the Court of England as Envoy from the Elector of Brandenbourg in the Room of the Baron d'Obrezinsky, who is recalled.

Paris, Octob. 15. N. S. The Marriage of Mademoiselle to the Duke of Lorraine was celebrated at Fontainebleau the 13th Instant, the Duke d'Elbeuf being that Prince's Proxy. The same evening Mademoiselle returned hither, accompanied by the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, the Duke d'Elbeuf, and the Princess of Lisslebonne. The two latter are to accompany her in her Journey to Lorraine, which she will begin to morrow; An Officer, and 30 of the King's Guards, are ordered to attend her, and the King defrays the Charges of her Journey through his Dominions. The Count d'Armagnac, the Chevalier de Lorraine, and Count Marsan, who are all of the Family of Lorraine, are gone Post, in order to be with the Duke of Lorraine when he meets his Dutchess, which will be at Barr.

Dublin, October 1. This day the House of Commons read for the first time a Bill for Confirming the Estates and Possessions held and enjoyed under the Acts of Settlement and Explanation. Then the Committee appointed to draw up their Address of Thanks to the Lords Justices for their Speech, presented the same, which was read and agreed to by the House; They ordered such of the Members as are of the Privy-Council to wait on the Lords Justices, and know when they would be attended with it. 'Twas ordered, That Leave should be given to bring in Heads for two Bills; One for Enlarging the
